Judith and John,

As I believe he has mentioned, I represent David Koenig in the lawsuit he has filed against Evans Clinchy, Jennifer Clinchy, and Brianna McKissen. He has also asked me to communicate with you regarding his motion for reconsideration of the decision reached by NASPA's Advisory Board last September.

Specifically, I am hoping you can provide more specific information regarding how and when the appeal process will play out. We are confident that the facts of the situation do not support the Advisory Boards' decision, and that the Advisory Board's process was riddled with procedural error. David's hope is that the Board's decision can be reversed in time for him to participate in the 2023 Scrabble Players Championship and the 2023 WESPA Championship next month. With that in mind, can you indicate:

1. The current membership of NASPA's Executive Committee and which members of that committee will be involved in adjudicating the motion for reconsideration.
2. The timetable for the committee's next meeting and when a decision can be expected.
3. The criteria that will be used to evaluate the Advisory Board's decision.

It is my client's hope and desire that the July events will not be tainted by the cloud of controversy created by the false and malicious allegations against him.

Please reply through me at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Marc Mohan
